30-DAY CONTENT CALENDAR

A practical publishing system for creators who want to build trust, deliver value and grow with intention.

CREATOR GROWTH KIT · ASSET 03

30 daily content briefs · hooks · formats · calls to action · weekly review system

How to use this calendar

This calendar is a flexible publishing system, not a rule that you must post every day. Use it to reduce decision fatigue and create a balanced mix of educational, relatable, community-building and conversion content.

Before Day 1

1. Choose one primary audience. 2. Write one clear sentence describing the problem you help them solve. 3. Select 3–5 content pillars. 4. Choose the platforms you can maintain consistently. 5. Prepare a simple filming or design workflow.

Recommended content mix

Content type	Suggested share	Purpose
Educational / practical	40%	Demonstrate useful knowledge and earn saves.
Relatable / storytelling	20%	Build familiarity and human connection.
Authority / proof	20%	Show your process, reasoning and credible examples.
Community / conversion	20%	Start conversations and guide interested people to a next step.

Use the suggested percentages as a starting point. Adjust them based on audience response and your actual business goal.

The daily calendar

Each brief gives you a starting angle. Adapt examples, terminology and calls to action to your niche. Do not copy a hook mechanically if it does not sound natural in your voice.

DAY 01 · POSITIONING

Format: Short-form video Objective: Clarity

Opening hook: “If people enjoy your content but still don’t know what you do, this is the problem.”

What to create: Explain who you help, what problem you solve, and the result you help create. Give one clear example from your niche.

CTA: Save this and rewrite your profile promise today.

DAY 02 · AUDIENCE PAIN POINT

Format: Carousel Objective: Relevance

Opening hook: “You’re not struggling because you lack talent. You may be solving the wrong problem.”

What to create: List three frustrations your ideal audience experiences. Explain one practical first step for each.

CTA: Comment with the problem you want solved most.

DAY 03 · QUICK WIN TUTORIAL

Format: Short-form tutorial Objective: Value

Opening hook: “Here’s one small change that can make your next post clearer.”

What to create: Teach one beginner-friendly action in 3 steps. Show the result or screen recording where possible.

CTA: Save this tutorial for your next content session.

DAY 04 · MYTH VS REALITY

Format: Talking-head video Objective: Authority

Opening hook: “Let’s stop believing this creator-growth myth.”

What to create: State one common myth in your niche, explain why it is incomplete, and replace it with a more useful principle.

CTA: Share this with a creator who needs the reminder.

DAY 05 · PERSONAL STORY

Format: Story-led video Objective: Connection

Opening hook: “I used to think [old belief]—until I learned this.”

What to create: Tell a short, honest story: the situation, what changed, and the lesson. Keep the lesson useful to the audience.

CTA: What lesson did experience teach you?

DAY 06 · RESOURCE RECOMMENDATION

Format: Carousel or screen recording Objective: Utility

Opening hook: “Three tools I’d recommend if you’re starting from zero.”

What to create: Show three relevant tools or resources. Explain what each does, who it helps, and one limitation or caveat.

CTA: Save the list and tell me which tool you use.

DAY 07 · WEEKLY RECAP

Format: Stories + recap post Objective: Community

Opening hook: “Here are three things worth remembering from this week.”

What to create: Summarise the week’s strongest lessons. Ask your audience which topic deserves a deeper tutorial.

CTA: Vote on the topic you want next.

Week 1 review

Record your top post by reach, saves, shares, meaningful comments and profile actions. Note the topic, hook, format and audience problem it addressed. Choose one thing to repeat and one thing to improve next week.

DAY 08 · MISTAKE BREAKDOWN

Format: Short-form video Objective: Education

Opening hook: “This mistake makes good content harder to understand.”

What to create: Demonstrate one common mistake, show the improved version, and explain the difference.

CTA: Send this to someone creating in your niche.

DAY 09 · STEP-BY-STEP PROCESS

Format: Carousel Objective: Saves

Opening hook: “Use this simple 4-step process before you publish.”

What to create: Break down a repeatable workflow. Make each step specific enough to act on immediately.

CTA: Save this as your pre-publishing checklist.

DAY 10 · BEHIND THE SCENES

Format: Stories or short video Objective: Trust

Opening hook: “Here’s what creating this actually looks like.”

What to create: Show planning, setup, drafting, editing, or packaging. Include one decision you made and why.

CTA: Ask me a question about the process.

DAY 11 · ANSWER A REAL QUESTION

Format: Talking-head video Objective: Engagement

Opening hook: “Someone asked me: [question]. Here’s the clear answer.”

What to create: Answer one frequently asked question directly. Define terms and give a practical example.

CTA: Drop your next question below.

DAY 12 · BEFORE AND AFTER

Format: Carousel or screen recording Objective: Proof

Opening hook: “Here’s the difference one focused improvement can make.”

What to create: Compare an earlier version with an improved version. Explain the specific changes; do not imply guaranteed results.

CTA: Which version communicates better?

DAY 13 · OPINION WITH REASONING

Format: Text-led video or carousel Objective: Positioning

Opening hook: “An unpopular opinion about [your niche]—with a reason.”

What to create: Share a thoughtful point of view, support it with an example, and acknowledge where exceptions apply.

CTA: Agree or disagree? Explain your view.

DAY 14 · AUDIENCE RESEARCH

Format: Stories + poll Objective: Research

Opening hook: “I’m planning the next set of tutorials. What would help you most?”

What to create: Offer two or three meaningful topic choices. Ask a follow-up question to understand the audience’s situation.

CTA: Vote, then add context in the question box.

Week 2 review

Record your top post by reach, saves, shares, meaningful comments and profile actions. Note the topic, hook, format and audience problem it addressed. Choose one thing to repeat and one thing to improve next week.

DAY 15 · DEEP-DIVE EXPLAINER

Format: Longer video or carousel Objective: Expertise

Opening hook: “Let’s make [confusing topic] simple in under two minutes.”

What to create: Explain one topic using a plain-language definition, analogy, example, and one action step.

CTA: Save this explainer for later.

DAY 16 · CHECKLIST

Format: Carousel Objective: Saves

Opening hook: “Before you [important task], check these five things.”

What to create: Create a practical checklist related to your niche. Make every item observable and easy to verify.

CTA: Save this checklist and use it this week.

DAY 17 · CASE STUDY OR EXAMPLE

Format: Carousel or video Objective: Authority

Opening hook: “Let’s break down why this example works.”

What to create: Analyse a public, permissioned, or your own example. Focus on decisions and principles rather than copying the work.

CTA: Which part should I analyse next?

DAY 18 · OBJECTION HANDLING

Format: Talking-head video Objective: Trust

Opening hook: “You might be thinking: ‘But what if I don’t have…?’”

What to create: Address one genuine audience objection such as time, budget, equipment, confidence, or experience. Offer a realistic workaround.

CTA: What is your biggest obstacle right now?

DAY 19 · TOOL DEMONSTRATION

Format: Screen recording Objective: Utility

Opening hook: “Watch me use [tool] to complete one real task.”

What to create: Demonstrate a single use case from start to finish. Mention what the tool cannot do or when it may not be suitable.

CTA: Save this workflow or share it with a teammate.

DAY 20 · CONTENT TRANSFORMATION

Format: Before/after carousel Objective: Efficiency

Opening hook: “One idea. Three ways to turn it into useful content.”

What to create: Repurpose one core idea into a short video, carousel, and story sequence. Show how the angle changes for each format.

CTA: Comment ‘REPURPOSE’ if you want a workflow.

DAY 21 · WEEKLY REFLECTION

Format: Stories + short post Objective: Community

Opening hook: “What worked, what didn’t, and what I’m changing next week.”

What to create: Share one learning, one experiment result, and one adjustment. Be honest; avoid presenting a small sample as proof.

CTA: What are you testing next week?

Week 3 review

Record your top post by reach, saves, shares, meaningful comments and profile actions. Note the topic, hook, format and audience problem it addressed. Choose one thing to repeat and one thing to improve next week.

DAY 22 · STRONG BEGINNER GUIDE

Format: Carousel or video Objective: Reach

Opening hook: “Starting [topic] from zero? Begin with these steps.”

What to create: Give a beginner sequence: first action, next skill, simple practice, and a sensible milestone.

CTA: Send this to someone just starting.

DAY 23 · PERSONAL VALUES

Format: Photo + caption or video Objective: Brand

Opening hook: “Here’s what I refuse to compromise on when I create.”

What to create: Explain two or three values that guide your work and how they benefit the audience or clients.

CTA: What value matters most in your work?

DAY 24 · COMMON QUESTION COMPARISON

Format: Carousel Objective: Decision support

Opening hook: “Which option should you choose: A or B?”

What to create: Compare two approaches by use case, cost, effort, and trade-offs. Avoid declaring one universally best.

CTA: Tell me your situation and I’ll suggest a starting point.

DAY 25 · MINI CHALLENGE

Format: Stories or short video Objective: Action

Opening hook: “Try this 10-minute challenge with me.”

What to create: Give the audience one small task they can complete today. State the expected output, not a guaranteed outcome.

CTA: Complete it and tag or message me with your result.

DAY 26 · OFFER OR SERVICE EDUCATION

Format: Carousel or talking-head video Objective: Conversion

Opening hook: “Here’s what a good [service/product] should actually help you do.”

What to create: Explain the problem your offer solves, what is included, who it is for, and who it is not for. Keep claims accurate.

CTA: Message me ‘DETAILS’ if you want the full breakdown.

DAY 27 · PROOF AND PROCESS

Format: Case study or testimonial Objective: Credibility

Opening hook: “The result matters—but here’s the process behind it.”

What to create: Share a verified result, client feedback with permission, or your own project. Add context, timeframe, and your contribution.

CTA: Ask me about the process behind this example.

DAY 28 · FREE RESOURCE

Format: Short video + story Objective: Lead generation

Opening hook: “I made a resource to help you take the next step.”

What to create: Introduce a genuinely useful free checklist, guide, template, or tutorial. Show what it contains and who should use it.

CTA: Get the free resource through the link in my bio.

DAY 29 · AUDIENCE TRANSFORMATION

Format: Carousel Objective: Aspiration

Opening hook: “Imagine what becomes easier when you can [specific skill].”

What to create: Describe a realistic before-and-after in behaviour or process. Give three actions that move someone toward the improved state.

CTA: Which action will you take first?

DAY 30 · MONTH-END REVIEW + NEXT STEP

Format: Video + stories Objective: Retention

Opening hook: “Thirty days of creating taught me this.”

What to create: Share your best lesson, strongest audience response, one thing to improve, and what you will publish next month. Invite the audience into the next series.

CTA: Follow and turn on notifications for the next series.

A repeatable short-form video structure

Use this structure when a video needs a clear beginning, useful middle and satisfying finish. Adapt the timing to the platform and topic.

Timing	Beat	Execution
0–2 sec	Pattern interrupt	Open with the hook. Show the outcome or problem immediately.
2–6 sec	Context	Explain who the advice is for and why it matters.
6–20 sec	Value	Deliver 2–3 clear steps, examples, or a demonstration.
20–27 sec	Payoff	Summarise the lesson or show the finished result.
Final 2–3 sec	One CTA	Ask for one action: save, comment, share, follow, or click.

Story prompts to support your main posts

- Share a behind-the-scenes moment and explain one decision you made.
- Use a poll to ask which of two audience problems is more urgent.
- Answer one question from a comment or DM (hide private details).
- Share a progress update and one honest lesson.
- Invite followers to submit a topic for a future tutorial.

Weekly performance review

Review patterns, not isolated numbers. A post with fewer views may still attract the right audience, generate meaningful enquiries or lead to a sale. Compare posts with similar formats and goals.

Metric	What to record	What it can indicate
Reach / views	Unique reach where available; plays or views.	Distribution and initial attention.
Retention / watch time	Average watch time, completion or retention curve.	Whether the opening and pacing hold attention.
Saves / shares	Total and rate relative to reach where possible.	Practical value or shareability.
Comments / replies	Relevant questions and conversation quality.	Resonance and audience understanding.
Profile actions / leads	Profile visits, link clicks, enquiries or sign-ups.	Whether content moves people toward a next step.

Weekly decision rule: identify one repeatable winner, one underperforming post worth learning from, and one controlled experiment. Change one major variable at a time where practical.

The 30-day creator scorecard

Complete this at the end of the month. Use your own baseline; there is no universal performance target that fits every account or platform.

Measure	Start of month	End of month	Learning / next action
Followers / subscribers
Average reach or views
Average watch time / retention
Saves
Shares
Meaningful comments
Profile visits
Link clicks / enquiries
Email sign-ups or leads
Sales (if applicable)

Your next-month plan

- The three topics my audience responded to most: _____
- The strongest format or opening style: _____
- The clearest audience question I should answer: _____
- One experiment I will run next month: _____
- One workflow I will simplify or stop: _____
- The single next step I want my audience to take: _____
